City Adopts New Rules

For Marina

The Belle Glade City Commission adopted a list of 17 regulations, some old and some new, to be put into effect at the municipal marina.

The commission has talked for some time about possible changes to be made at the marina, largely because of a steady increase in the number of campers.

One of the first changes mentioned during the commission meeting Monday night was to have 18 to 20 spaces directly across from the Aubrey Farmer Pavilion for Belle Glade residents.

"I don't know how crowded the park becomes," Mayor Farmer told the commissioners and City Manager Jim Mallery. "We ought to keep those places reserved for local people."

Mallery has told the commission several times the city is reaching the point it is going to have to make a decision on what appears to be a proposal concerning the marina's recreational vehicles being used as homes as steadily rising according to Mallery.

He said he has already seen what can happen when too many permanent residents get into the park. "I think something that happened eight years ago when he was city manager in Punta Gorda.

Mallery said permanent residents in a city-owned recreation park in Punta Gorda reached the point they essentially controlled the park, turning it into a mobile home park instead of a recreational area.

Three of the newly adopted regulations, along with another city policy not included in the regulations, are aimed at keeping that from happening in the Belle Glade Marina.

The city policy is that no one living in the marina may be allowed to vote in city elections or file taxes in the marina as an address.

It has long been city policy to charge out-of-towners higher camping fees than local residents and Mallery said some out-of-towners were trying to trick voters to take advantage of lower fees.

The camp ground is also limited, according to new regulations, to recreational vehicles and camp, tents and mobile camping equipment.

Bottled gas must be in mounted bottles and campers aren't allowed to install permanent front steps.

Mobile homes and large bottles of gas are expressly forbidden in the new regulations.

Another regulation says that campers are limited to two weeks stays in the park and additional two weeks extensions must be requested through the park supervisor and approved by Mallery.

Regulations number 10 forbids campers to make telephone connections, an item the commission has supported all along.

Other regulations subject to revision are:

Rent must be paid in advance at the office.

Camp units must be located totally within one number camp site.

Recreational vehicles must be parked into the campsites.

Camp units must be parked from 10 p.m. to 6 a.m. That was to keep down the nighttime traffic.

5 mile per hour speed limit will be observed.

No motor bikes will be ridden on the paths.

Boats are limited to the main boat ramp and 5 miles per hour apart but small air boats will be run in the marina between 10 p.m. and 6 a.m.

Pets must be leashed and properly supervised and aren't allowed in rest rooms.

With music by Bill Kimel and Men of Music being featured, women of Omicron Iota decide and the Beat goes on would make an appropriate theme for the event.

The Fort Lauderdale band is best known for its Glenn Miller style of playing and they feature such favorites as Moonlight Serenade, in the Mood and String of Pearls.

There has been some confusion however, since the sorority members don't intend to mail tickets as usual.

Depending instead on personal contacts by chapter members.

General chairman Mrs. Dudley Barnes said the committee members are contacting residents of Belle Glade, Pahokee and Clewiston for ticket donations.

For those who would like to buy tickets but aren't contacted, she said tickets can be bought by calling 996-5247 and reservations can be made by calling 996-6205.

Mrs. Bill Mills and Alice Mixson Florist will handle decorations for the ball.

Blood Pressure Checks Are Now Being Offered

pressure.

"We know our incidence rate of heart attack and heart failure, strokes and so forth is on the increase," Mrs. Elder said.

"One reason is because so many people go for many years with high blood pressure untreated.

"We're very interested in high blood pressure and hypertension among working people," she said, "because these people often have the problem without being aware of it because they don't go to doctors often enough."

"That's why high blood pressure is often called the Silent Disease," she said.

Working people, according to Mrs. Elder, don't often have time to check themselves often enough because they just afford to take the time off from their jobs and often they can't afford the physician's fees.

"We're also particularly interested in the Glades," she said, "because of the large number of black residents in the area. Blacks have a much higher incidence rate of high blood pressure than do white persons."

Mrs. Elder said the tests will be quick and the results will be available on Monday.

"If a person's pressure falls within the normal range, she said he will be advised to have his blood pressure checked at least once a year.

Inspection Station Shut

Station Shut

The Vehicle Inspection Station in Pahokee will close Monday as employees can observe George Washington's birthday as a holiday according to a station spokesman.

The station will close at 5:30 p.m. Friday and re-open for business as usual at 8:30 a.m. Tuesday.

Science Fair

Eighth graders Luana Lusby and Sandy Leeman were among the first Lake Shore Junior High School students to set up their exhibits in the school's material center. They picked a local subject and depicted a cross section of wildlife in the Everglades along with a relief map. The map was marked with the numbers indicating where Luana captured the animals and fish. They are members of Bill Turley's science class, one of several classes to set up exhibits in the fair.

At County Fair

Belle Glade's 4-H Group Does Well

Belle Glade 4H Club members brought home a variety of awards, trophies and ribbons in several categories of competition at the South Florida Fair last week.

Local 4Hers won awards in events ranging from dairy cattle to sewing, cooking to horse showing and riding to a new award for sportsmanship.

Allen Innes was the first-ever winner of a sportsmanship award given by a group of county veterinarians involved in the fair.

Marion Baker said Innes was the award for the best exhibitor in the dairy cattle barn, although Allen didn't have a project of his own.

Innes went over to the fair with his mother and spent the night in the dairy barn, helping other exhibitors get their cattle ready for events before finally "hitting the hay" at 3 a.m.

Local veterinarian Dr. Arthur Tuckbury in a special presentation Monday night during the local 4H club's regular meeting.

Mrs. Baker said Lloyd told her it was the first of what will be an annual award to be given by county veterinarians. Gary Baker and Robin Hooker took two prizes each in the Youth Dairy Show to head the list of local dairy exhibitors.

Innes won his first prize, a Grand Prize in Class Seven, Animal B for his registered brown Swiss Jersey, Steinbrink. His second award, another Grand Prize was won by his registered Holstein, Anna Marie Beauty, in the Class Seven for the Shorthorn.

Miss Hooker, the daughter of John Hooker, took a Grand Prize in the Class Six, Animal B competition for her Registered Jersey, Pennwood Suman Gunee and a Reserve Prize in Class Four, Animal B for her Registered Jersey, Gigi.

Clark Lloyd won a trophy for ownership. The trophy is awarded to the West Side Kiwanis Club.

Club members attending the fair horse show were Laura Weeks, Julie Stein, Mitchell

Tanner, Sandy Ferguson and Tamie Herick.

Laura Weeks, showing her American Paint Horse, won three third place ribbons in the Gelding model class, English Plaisance and Saddle Seat Foundation competition.

Mitchell Weeks placed second in the mares class when he put a point leading on show.

Julie Stein placed first in the Young Halter Class, showing English horse.

Sandy Ferguson, a new club member, placed fourth in Western Pleasure class and third in Western Pleasure Plaisance.

Tamie Herick won first place in showmanship halter competition.

Do You Know Him?

Do you know this man? This is composite drawing made of the armed bank robber who ordered a teller at the Bank of Belle Glade to fill a grocery bag with money Monday and made off with more than $11,000.

The FBI was working with local police on the case. Wednesday morning after the teller and Belle Glade Police Lt. Johnny Walker worked together to make up the composite picture.

Anyone with any knowledge of the man is requested to notify police authorities.

Another first was rung up for Belle Glade when local 4H club members Allen Innes won the first annual Sportsmanship trophy given on by county veterinarians at the South Florida State Fair. Dr. Arthur Lloyd presented the award to Allen during the club's regular meeting. Tuesday night, saying the local boy won it because of help he offered others at the fair although he had no project of his own.

March Of Dimes

Poster parties were the order of the day earlier this week as the plans for the second annual Glades Walkathon switched into high gear. The Walkathon is scheduled for March 2 when over 500 local residents will march between Belle Glade and Pahokee to raise money for the March of Dimes. Last year the Glades raised over $11,500, highest per person figure in all of Palm Beach County. Mrs. Marjorie Echols reported that Carmen Domingo, a former March of Dimes national poster girl will visit the Glades Feb. 28. There will also be a meeting of all volunteers in the library Friday night beginning at 7:30. All those people who would like to help in the drive are urged to attend.

We Want You!

Members of the Board of Directors of the Belle Glade Chamber of Commerce recently announced the Chamber's Annual Membership Drive. The Directors will be making personal calls for businessmen in the area who are non-members soliciting for new memberships. New businesses joining the Chamber receive publicity through a picture and article appearing published in the Belle Glade Herald and The Palm Beach Times when they become Chamber members. The Chamber of Commerce is organized with just two goals in mind (1) to make this area a better, safer and more attractive place for citizens to live and work. (2) Promote our area so that new businesses and residents will find it a receptive community in which to settle and do business.

The Chamber's activities have all grown out of these two goals. The Chamber sponsors the Canal Hazards Safety Committee, the Beautification Committee, the Port Committee, Migrant Committee, Women's Committee, funding for the Wee Care Children Development Center and numerous other worthwhile projects that better our Community.

In promoting this area and providing recreational and entertaining programs for visitors and citizens, the Chamber sponsors such annual activities at the Regatta, Boat-A-Cade, Fishing Tournament, besides providing enjoyment for residents, these activities attract tourist and visitors from all over the United States.

In addition to special projects such as those mentioned above, the Chamber provides services by operating as a Better Business Bureau, and also provides courtesy rental information for those coming here to work and looking for a place to live.

On day to day basis the Chamber replies to over a thousand inquiries each month from people interested in visiting or settling in this area.

Members of the public elect a Board of Directors, composed of twelve (12) local business men and citizens. These men give their time and energies freely to carry out Chamber goals and to represent all businesses and residents in the area. These men approach their community involvement through the Chamber with enthusiasm, but they need help and support from everyone.

Much of the burden of responsibility falls to the Board's Executive Committee, which is composed of the President, First Vice President, Second Vice President and the Treasurer. The Executive Secretary is the Chamber's only full-time paid employee.

The Directors meet twenty four (24) times a year, on a semi-monthly basis, and all citizens offering ideas or suggestions are invited Board of Directors.

The Chamber can't begin to function without the approval and support of the citizens and businessmen it serves. During the current membership drive the Chamber Directors are asking you to show your interest in making this a better place to live and work by becoming a new member or renewing your present membership.

Do you want to help make Belle Glade a better place to live? If so, then throw your support behind the Chamber.

It is working for you.

No Need To Get Frustrated, You'll Never Win

I got the word straight from the horse's mouth.

I was in the office Sunday, trying to catch up on some loose ends, when James Ball came by on one of his strolls around the city.

Mr. Ball, for those two or three people in Belle Glade who may not know him, is one of the most easy-going men I've ever met, always with a smile and never hurried or hurried.

I think in his young days, he must have given relaxing lessons to Dean Martin and Perry Como.

Anyway, back to the subject at hand, whatever that was, we got to talking about taxes and the column I did on the infernal revenue service last week. Mr. Ball said he agreed with me but told me about his philosophy, one I had just about worked out on my own but never put into words.

"The one thing you have to remember," he said, "is that you're never going to win; there's no way you can beat the government and there's no need to get nervous and frustrated about it."

It might be a kind of fatalism, or stoicism if you will, but I think it makes sense.

The reason Mr. Ball said he refuses to get upright and tense about the situation is that the man who draws up the 1040 form is about as smart as the economist who figured out how the country can get along year after year spending more than it makes.

No sane person can figure out either system and if you have, another, you're probably ready for the Funny Farm.

Speaking of South Dakota (notice how subtly pulled you into the subject?) it seems the good people of Bradenton are going to hold their 22nd Annual South Dakota Picnic on the 22nd of this month.

Now, I've never been to South Dakota and I don't have anything against the state, but from what I've heard, I can't figure out why anyone would want to be reminded of the fact.

One of my better friends hails from that state and if you listen to him long enough, you'll get the definite idea its official name is the -State of Depression.

According to Art, South Dakota is too hot in the summer and too cold in the winter. When he left, I think he took a sacred oath (assuming he believes anything is sacred) never to return.

I mean...when you listen to him long enough, you get the distinct impression the one place worse than South Dakota is more South Dakota. Of course, there is the possibility the Bradenton South Dakota Picnic is something like the Jewish Passover.

celebrating the fact the South Dakotans passed over the state line.

Last I heard, there were 147 people from South Dakota at the picnic last year. But I still wonder what they were celebrating.

Just thought I'd pass the word along for what it's worth. There may be someone around here who was born along the Little Big Horn and they might want to recall the old home place along with old friends and neighbors.

Just heard a bit of encouraging, if puzzling, news. Seems a group of collegiate political science majors attended a political third game-jackpot which is now up to almost $8. You are given a ticket at the beginning of bowling with a number on it.

If you're in the middle of the first game your number is drawn you get to shoot for a strike worth $10. The same is true in the second game.

But the third game is something different. Your number is called you get to shoot at the four-seven-ton split. Each week the jack pot gets bigger.

During the first three games of Fun Night I watched Art Shireman blow the $81. But the $1 he was on the other foot in the second three games. My number was called. And I did just as badly as Art. Neither one of us could keep it on the alley with all that money at stake. Well--maybe next week.

Belle Glade was in bad shape there for awhile with the truck strike. An old song title about summed it up, "You Never Miss the Water Till the Well Runs Dry." And oh how true with trucks.

Possibly living here in the Glades we appreciate trucks a little more than the average American. We are around them all the time. We see them hauling all the time.

But stop to think about it. Nothing gets anywhere without being hauled on a truck at least part of the way. And when you have fresh vegetables on the loading docks waiting for shipment north, you can't afford to many days of waiting for a truck to come along.

"It's over than goodness. With three seven-ton tractors in two weeks and the truck strike, along with the fuel shortage, farmers will be talking about the winter of '73-'74 as one of the worst for quite some time to come.

Well, I found out this weekend I could never play sports for money. I'm too big a choke.

Went out to Triangle Lanes for Fun Night Saturday since my wife left me a bachelor for the weekend. If you're in a serious bowling mood it isn't for you--but if you just want to have some fun and relax--it can't be beat.

You don't have to be a good bowler to win money or have fun. You have different color pins that can win you money if they are left standing or if they are located in certain positions when standing.

But the big event of the night is the

Or are there two others, one Democratic and one Republican? Could be but that would lead one to wonder whether there might not be a conflict of interest here somewhere.

Oh well, we have learned another two years before anyone seriously starts beating the drums for another Presidential campaign. I hope.

All right everybody, time for the not-so-regular and not-so-famous Weekly Cracker Crumbs.

This was brought up by some news stories out of Miami-recently about the movie industry down there and how some people wanted to stop the use of the residential areas for filming such classics as "Deep Throat".

Opps! Ta-da-ta-da! (that's a flourish of trumpets). Where was the first feature length film made?

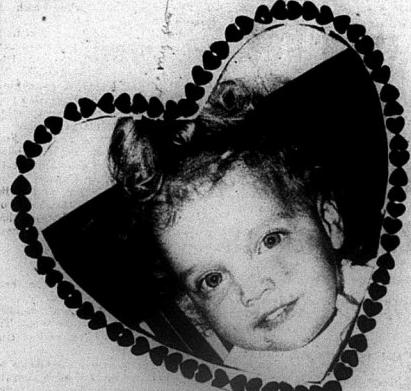

Answer: (pretend it's upside down) My old hometown, Jacksonville. For those devotees of minutiae and useless facts, a company shot "From the Manger to the Cross" in the old Cowsford in 1907.

Now, it seems a lot of smaller films, as well as a heck of a lot of television commercials, are being filmed in the State of Excitement.

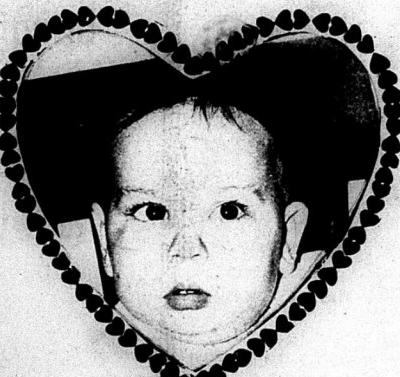

Impressed. Huh? Happy Valentine's Day.

Pensando Juntos

En muchas ocasiones, nos detenemos y le damos una segunda mirada a muchas de las cosas que tenemos a nuestro alcance.

Estos días, sin dudarnos mucho, estamos tratando de buscar solución a problemas o una situación interesante en esta sociedad en la que vivimos y nos movemos.

La pregunta tiene un carácter personal, si se quiere hasta espiritual. Que amemos y respetemos a una persona? Que es lo que hace de un hombre o una mujer, una persona de respeto?

Algunas personas piensan que el respeto a una persona, y lo que hace de una persona respetable, es la cantidad de dólares que haya ahorrado en el banco. Otros, piensan que aquellos que merecen nuestro respeto, son aquellos que tienen cierta posición la cuales determinados problemas.

Una comedia que presenta lo anterior expuesto, es "The Would Be Gentleman", o quizás pudieramos traducirlo a lo que significaría: "El que Pudiera Ser Gentleman". Hable de un maestro que de la noche a la mañana se enriquece, y quiso moverse entre la clase más alta de la sociedad. Por supuesto, todos sus esfuerzos fueron en vano, y por los disparates que habló de su faz de sentido común, en particular en el vestir, prodigaron la risa entre aquellos que pensó encontraría a sus amigos, y que encontraría respeto.

El dinero que una persona tenga, no la hace más o menos respetable.

Otros piensan que llevar un apellido que suene sofisticado, o por estar casado o casada con alguien que pueda resolvernos un problema, o que tenga cierta posición en la sociedad, es de respetabilidad. No, no entremos en esos temas, pues hemos conocido muchísimas y muchas, que sería mejor que nunca hubieran tenido ciertos apellidos, y que se escudan en ellos, para "PARACER" personas de respetabilidad.

Que hace de veras que nos respetan? Que hace que nos respetemos? Que hace que nos respetemos? Que debemos respetar a aquellos que no tienen necesidad de escondarse detrás de dinero, negocios, apellidos, posición, etc., que pueden enfrentarse sinceramente situaciones, sin que sus motivos sean tórridos, por intereses egoístas.

Pensamos que hay que respetar a quienes que respetan nuestra dignidad. Pensamos que debemos respetar a aquellos que han demostrado ser sinceros con nosotros, y con otros. Pensamos que hay que respetar aquellos que respetan la ley y que sinceramente buscan vivir de acuerdo con las leyes de El, y las leyes de la sociedad. Pensamos que debemos respetar y hasta admirar a aquellos que saben respetar la vida humana, aquellos que no buscan solamente lo suyo, pero lo de los demás. Pensamos que debemos respetar a aquellos que han logrado vivir dentro de los más altos niveles morales y espirituales de nuestro cultura.

El ser humano, tiene que ser honesto, al mirar a aquellos alrededor nuestro debemos de ir mas alla de lo exterior, debemos mirar a lo interno. Al observarlos debemos hacer lo en la misma forma, o mirando lo que nuestras decisiones puedan influir en nosotros, pero por tambien en los demás.

Nuestra conducta, nuestra moral, nuestro proceder, debe llevarnos a que los demás nos respeten, no por lo que somos, pero por lo que somos, por nuestra integridad.

Al contemplar a nuestro alrededor, veamos las formas en que aquellos se comportan y actúan, hasta que punto nosotros debemos de tener a ellos el respeto, y la confianza.

Martin K. Showman of Pompano Beach announced this week the engagement of his daughter, Beverly, to Layne Plunkett, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Plunkett of 918 N.W. Fourth St. in Belle Glade.

Miss Showman is a graduate of Alton High School in Monessen, Pa. and of Moody Bible Institute of Chicago, Ill.

Annual Spring Happening Set

Palm Beach Atlantic College will have its sixth annual "Spring Happening" on Feb. 19, a month before Spring officially arrives this year.

Don Harp, Student Enlistment Director and coordinator of the program, has scheduled the event to take advantage of the college's production of "Music Man" which will be playing that week.

In addition, an earlier orientation will allow high school students to make a decision about fall enrollment earlier in the year.

The program this year will be short, informative and entertaining. During the morning session, which begins at 10 a.m. in the college auditorium, students will be entertained by the college's New Group singers and scenes from "Music Man."

Information regarding admissions, financial aid and the academic program will be given by appropriate college personnel. A complimentary luncheon in the cafeteria and a campus tour will complete the scheduled events.

There will be opportunity for students to talk with department directors, staff, and administrators if desired.

Q. My mother-in-law recently moved into our home. She doesn't have a driver's license. Am I covered by my present automobile policy if I let her use my car to get out on the road occasionally?

Mother-in-law is covered when she drives your car.

A. You are as covered as she drives it as if you drive it yourself.

Your policy will not provide coverage, however, if your mother-in-law, though living in your house, drives a car that she owns.

Blue Ribbon Winners

Third and Fourth grade students at St. Peter's Lutheran School show off an exhibit and the blue ribbon exhibit won last week at the South Florida Fair in West Palm Beach. Students who helped prepare the arts and crafts exhibit (shown above) are Stanley Caster, Ben Cameron, John Gascho, Rhonda Smith and Judi Austin. The class teacher, Miss Jan Vogel, said other students also had a hand in the creation.

Sheets - A Fantastic Idea For Decorating

A new idea in do-it-yourself home decorating starts with sheets. There are a fantastic number of patterns and colors to choose from, and certainly nothing could be easier to keep

Boxes Can Be A Boon

A stack of cardboard boxes in your storage area may not "turn you on," but turn them into furniture that is a boon to budget and decor.

Mrs. Arlen C. Jones, Extension Home Economics Agent, reports that the cube shape is very popular in ready-made house furnishings.

What better way to acquire needed furniture than to make it from what you already have on hand, Mrs. Jones.

Take a sturdy box and cover it with fabric paper or paint. Doesn't it look like an end table, coffee table or a good place to serve snacks?

You might do up several boxes at a time and let your children use them in their room. They're so easy to make that they can be used for tables or divided up all in one day.

Fruit and vegetable crates are another kind of box that can have a future. Imagine them as doll cupboards, as nooks for supplies or even as a small chest of drawers.

Medieval instruments were kept awake by the belief that they could sleep if owl feathers were laid upon them.

Clothing Course Set

A course in clothing construction techniques will be presented at 7 p.m. today at the Main Building, at 581 North Military Trail in West Palm Beach for all area housewives.

Palm Beach County Extension Home Economics Agent Mrs. Arlen C. Jones, director of the course, "Getting Down to Basics," will be presented through her home economics program by Cheryl Smith, educational representative of a national textile company in New York.

"Mrs. Smith will be bringing us the latest information on clothing construction techniques and professional 'tricks' for the home couturier," Mrs. Jones said.

For further information, call the extension home economics office in the Glades at 996-5511.

Whether sheets are turned into tablecloths, curtains, or wall-coverings they still maintain the carefree ability to be machine-washed and dried with ease - especially the microfibers.

Another advantage of decorating with sheets is that the extra width means less seamng and piecing for larger items such as circular tablecloths. Also, sheets are easy to lay out for novices, and they are often more economical than comparable yard goods.

Curtains and draperies made with scallops, pleats, ruffles, or gathers can give coordination and a face lift to any room in the house. Some sheets have decorative borders, so shower curtains and draperies have an instant edge that eliminated hemming.

Make dust ruffles for beds, a dressing table skirt, and use lace or cloth material to make matched closet accessories, fashion a curler caddy, outline a teenager's bulletin board or cover a wastebasket.

One or two sheets go a long way in the kitchen. Toaster cover, mixer cover, placemats, napkins, aprons, towels, and aprons can all be made to match. Make a simple hostess dress, skirt, or wide-legged pants in the same print.

Concealing problem wall areas by giving the room a warm, lush look may be accomplished by gathering or shirring sheets on a close-to-the-wall rod.

Nursing Homes Gets New Look

The new look at Sunset Heights Nursing Home is the result of the efforts of the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, and the Nursing Home Administrator.

President Eugene Harrison, Administrative Assistant to the Community Action Migrant Program, and members John Jones, President, and School Board and Attorney Thomas Montgomery, of the Palm Beach County Rural Legal Services, donated the labor in the painting of the Sunset Heights Nursing Home.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Mizell, R.N., Administrator of the home, donated the paints. The Board of Directors are very grateful for their wonderful contribution toward the improvement of the nursing home.

• Is State Award Next?

Patricia A. Summers, a 17-year-old senior, was recently chosen the Glades Central 1974 Betty Crocker Family Leader of Tomorrow in annual competition with other girls in the school.

Miss Summers, the daughter of Mrs. Dennis Summers of 644 S. Poinsett, won the title by showing high in written knowledge and attitude of education administered to seniors throughout the country by General Mills on Dec. 4.

Along with the title, General Mills will be presenting Miss Summers a specially designed award. She will also be eligible for the same award on state and national levels.

The Glades Central senior said her favorite area of effort in homemaking is sewing and she uses much of her own clothes. She said she has enjoyed taking home economics courses in school.

"I would be taking home ec again this term," she said, "but I have to go to college and I didn't have time for it."

She said she will be attending Florida A&M University in the fall and she intends to major in home economics so she can teach it to high school girls herself.

From the ranks of school winners in the state, a State Family Leader of Tomorrow will be selected by General Mills through judging centered on test performance and the work done in the classroom for a $1,500 college scholarship.

The second-ranking student in the state will receive a $500 scholarship and Encyclopedia Britannica Educational Corp. will present "The Annals of America," a 20-volume history book to each of the top 20 volume winners.

Should Miss Summers win the state contest, she, along with the winners in the other 49 states and the District of Columbia and faculty advisors, will be the guest of General Mills in an expense-paid educational tour of Washington D.C. and Minneapolis, Minn. in April.

During the tour, personal observations and interviews are added to state level competition which results in the selecting of the National-American Family Leader of Tomorrow, who receives a $5,000 scholarship.

If Miss Summers fails to win first place, but wins second, third or fourth place on the national level, she would be eligible to win scholarships valued at $4,000, $3,000 or $2,000 respectively.

Nationally, 703,074 students in 14,463 schools took the Betty Crocker exam this year. Approximately 9 million students have taken part in the program since it began during the 1954-55 school year.

The purpose of the annual games is to provide athletic competition for retarded personal of more than $2 million have been awarded in grants.

60 Enter Olympics

Students at the West Area Exceptional Child Education Center at Gove Elementary School will be among those participating in the 1974 Florida Special Olympic games for retarded children May 8.

The games, for which 60 local children are eligible to enter, will be taking place from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the field of the Florida Atlantic University in Boca Raton.

The purpose of the annual games is to provide athletic competition for retarded persons eight years or older in Palm Beach County.

The events include swimming, bowling, track and field events, gymnastics and wheelchair games. Sharon L. Smoot, coordinator for the Olympics in the county, estimates some 300 children will be competing.

Dr. Frances J. Myers, FAU professor of physical education, will direct the meet with the help of volunteers from the physical education department and students, exceptional child education center, and the local major students and the Boca Raton Junior Women's Club.

Winners in the special Olympic games will have a chance to compete in the regional games in West Palm Beach in April and go on to the state championship games later in the year.

Mrs. Smoot said many volunteers are donating goods and services, time or money but more contributions are needed to provide entry fees for needy children and to finance transportation for the winners to district and state meets.

She said checks may be made out to the Special Olympics, District 10 and can be mailed to the Florida National Bank in Boca Raton.

Mr. Joseph Kennedy will again be the guest of honor.

Future Phone System Shown To BPW

The Belle Glade Business & Professional Women's Club met Monday evening at the Belle Glade Municipal Library.

Tomato Committee To Meet

The regular business meeting of the Florida Tomato Committee will meet at 11 a.m. on Wednesday, Feb. 20 at the Holiday Inn in Belle Glade.

A painting rendered by a local artist and the salesmanship of Nu Kappa chapter of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority added up last week to the first step towards a Glades area home for girls.

In a double presentation ceremony Thursday, Nu Kappa officers presented a painting to Mrs. William Hutton of Palmetto and a $500 check to the Nelle Smith Residence for Girls, Inc.

The presentation capped a two-months drive to sell raffle tickets for the painting done by Bell Glade artist Ann Tyler. Mrs. Hutton bought the winning ticket.

Nu Kappa President Judy Browning and Chapter Ways and Means Chairman Brenda Prescott presented the painting to Mrs. Hutton and the check from the proceeds to Mrs. Barbara Pope.

Nu Kappa President Judy Browning and Chapter Ways and Means Chairman Brenda

Prescott presented the painting to Mrs. Hutton and the check from the proceeds to Mrs. Barbara Pope, president of the Juvenile and Family Court judges.

Mrs. Pope is also Palm Beach County Juvenile and Domestic counselor and it was through her work with the children that she became interested in the Nelle Smith Residence.

This residence is the largest money-making effort by any one group for the home," she said after the presentation.

She said it could represent the beginning of a drive for another such residence in the Glades area.

The Nelle Smith Residence, located in West Palm Beach, is a non-profit home for teenage girls. It was opened in 1970 and named for the late Nelle Smith, the first officially appointed counselor for the Juvenile and Family Court of Palm Beach County.

Mrs. Pope said the home has served a total of 36 girls, with a maximum of eight living at the residence at any one time.

"Anything larger," she said, "is beyond our home. It's an institution."

TUESDAY WELD

By Julia A. Shelhamer

It was during the French and Indian War. The battle was fought between General Braddock, who had brought from England an army of well-trained soldiers and officers, lay dead killed by the Indians!

The whole army of English and American boys was disengaged. Their (then) modern war was not a match for those illiterate Indians who were likely to rush in open them any moment with their war whoops and poisoned arrows. Our men knew that they should flee at once, but they did not dare to leave alone with the body of their beloved general, cold and stiff in death. It likely would be mutilated by the Indians, and, besides, our loyal-hearted men did not want him to be buried without some sort of a funeral.

But their chaplain was mortally wounded, and not one of those dignified officers with high-sounding titles knew what to do. It was a dreadful moment, every one seemed petrified with fear and horror!

Suddenly, a tall angular young fellow in numberless blue boots strode into their midst. He was not a commissioned officer and had no title except that of "Aide-de-camp" to General Braddock. But his keen eye took in the whole situation at once. He realized that something had to be done quickly.

So, stepping to the side of his shocked general, he stood over him with closed eyes in silent prayer. Then quietly he drew from his pocket a little book with which he seemed as familiar as some young men are with a deck of cards or a pack of cigarettes. His knowing fingers turned the pages quickly to Scripture appropriate to the occasion, and in a voice he read, "If a man dies, will he live again?" and kindred words. Following with the ritual for burial of the dead. Lifting his voice in fervent prayer, he committed the soul of the departed to God, then turned the body over to the English officers for burial.

If Indians could find the grave they would be quite sure to take up the body to get its gold teeth. And, since the grave was dug in the middle of the road, so traffic would obliterate all traces of the burial. All this was done so quietly and quickly that before the Indians arrived our army had escaped to safety.

But who was that tall young man who saved the day? It was twenty-three-year-old George Washington! Where did he get the training that enabled him to take charge so quickly with such wisdom, dignity, and reverence?

Here is the secret: when George was but eleven years of age, his father died. The young heartbroken boy and mother, overwhelmed with grief and responsibility, saw that she could not take her husband's place in looking after the children's spiritual needs without assistance. When she asked George to take full responsibility, saw that she could not take God-fearing. With this experience he learned to govern without friction; what a wonderful preparation for governing a nation!

Besides this unusual task his mother had assigned prepared him to help out just in the nick of time on the occasion of General Braddock's sudden death.

Did You Know This About George?

Stop the presses, you guys! We got a new lead!

Now...you know as well as I do (I'm Cindy, remember?) that that stuff is cornball straight out of "30", "The Big Picture" or one of those other old movies about trench coat-wearing reporters and crusty old city editors.

And to kill a few more stereotypes anyone around Belle Glade may have, we don't keep a bottle of bourbon in our desk drawer, spend all our spare time hanging around gin mills and police stations or carry one of those big Graflex cameras around with us either.

We're a little bit different around the Herald.

Like, the Herald is a weekly and you have a small staff on a weekly taking care of the same amount of jobs a larger staff performs on a daily.

Like, we don't even print the papers at our Belle Glade plant. They're made up here and printed in Clewiston. That's why we have to set our deadlines as early as they are.

Like, because we're smaller, with a smaller staff, we care. It may take us longer to put out our newspaper but we're still small enough to want to get all the local news in the paper.

Try us...you'll like us. And come on by and see us sometime.

her husband's place in looking after the children's spiritual needs without assistance. When she asked George to take full responsibility for conducting daily family worship he thought a moment then consented to try. It was not an easy task to get the little ones together regularly for prayer and reading of the Bible, for usually children do not like to be told what to do by one of their own number. But George was patient, diplomatic, and had a wonderful preparation for governing a nation!

Four Raiders Enter State Wrestling Tournament

No fewer than four Glades Central wrestlers will be grappling for championships in the State Championship Tournament this weekend after scoring wins in the District 5 tournament last weekend.

Raiders on their way to the state tournament are: 141 pound Ronald Collins, 148 pound Clarence Brown, 170 pound Anthony Wilson and big Clark Lloyd in the unlimited weight class.

Charles Payne, ninth grade 108 pounder for Glades, won in the first round of bouts against

son but in the second round fell victim to Bob Benn of John L.

Leonard the eventual champion who weighed 125 pounds.

At 129 pounds Bob "Sweet Pea" Simpson of Glades Central made a fine fifth place showing by pinning Mike

Bergman, St. Andrews and defeating Gary Holzapfel of Fort Pierce.

But "Sweet Pea" lost a tough bout to Norbert Fleming of Coconut Creek, the eventual 129 pound champion.

Clarence "Noddie" Brown made a strong second place finish at 148 pounds. Brown drew a bye in the first round of bouts, defeated John Parker of Palm Beach Gardens in round two, and won another decision in round three over John Lewis of Northwood. In the championship bout some questionable referee calls forced "Noddie" to make a wrong move for a loss by pin to Darris McCarty of Fort Pierce Central.

A newcomer to the Raider squad from last year is Clark Lloyd at unlimited. In the first round of wrestling

Friday afternoon, Clark decided Roger Butterfield of Martin County and then in Friday evening's round he pinned Nelson Diaz of Twin Lakes.

During the Saturday afternoon session, Clark won a decision over Elliott Virgin of Fort Pierce Central.

The championship bout

Saturday night pitted Clark against Jerry Shultz of Deerfield Beach. It was a closely fought battle with

Lloyd the aggressor carrying the action to Sheridan.

Again it was questionable

judging that forced the bout into a tie. In the two rounds during which Clark made the first mistake of the close contest and was pinned.

The 141 pound division was a strong weight class this year and featured some excellent opponents of which the most outstanding is Glades Central's

Ronald "Rat" Collins.

In round three was against

Gregg Mueller of Piper, and in round two Ferdinand Drayton of Martin County was the victim.

Ronald disposed of Buckman and assured himself of a position of the state-bound unit.

In the championship bout

John L. Leonard. This was the third meeting for the pair this season with each having won one of the previous bouts. But

Raider Ron Collins was evidently superior and won the

with a 72 decision.

Raider Anthony Wilson was clearly the class of the 170 pound division. By the end of the first round, Wilson was assured of at least one trophy when he pinned David Price of Forest Hill in only 14 seconds for the quickest pin of the tournament.

In his third round Anthony won a superior decision over

Robert McMillan of Coconut

Creek. A pin on Robert Fieldos

of Lake Worth in the third round advanced Wilson and Emmitt

Bullard of Fort Pierce Central.

The two had met earlier in the season for the championship in the Suncoast Conference Tournament. Wilson won the trophy in the first meeting and he won again for the District Championship Trophy.

In the 19 schools in District 5,

Glades Central placed fifth. An excellent showing for a young team.

This Friday and Saturday the four state qualifiers will be at Stranahan High School in FL.

Lauderdale for the State

Wrestling Tournament and hopefully the Raiders first state championship in wrestling.

Bowling News

OLD MAN WILLIS & JR. bowled high team series of 2090 with PALM CLUB taking high team game 739.

Although there were no 600 sets Jerry Parson had high series with 593 Dennis Crawford 588, and Buddy Little 569. The women were outnumbered by only 2 of them bowling-Marty Crawford high series 466 with high game of 187, Ruby Cantrell 463 with a 164 high game.

bareback bronc riding competition.

This was part of the women, we love to look at jewelry, especially expensive jewelry, of which that ring surely must be.

And it is a beauty. This was the one from the season before when the Dolphins went 17-0. It was even larger than I had imagined.

"Where are you going to wear the other ring?" asked one woman, slightly puzzled. "I have all these," he grinned and held up his fingers.

I was the proud owner of that ring for five minutes. He let me try it on and apparently forgot about it while he was talking.

Believe me, I was sorely tempted to walk off with it right there.

After watching Mumphord sign a few autographs, regrettably I had to leave. Only now I realize I forgot to ask for his autograph.

But don't be fooled by his size. As the saying goes "Big things come in small packages." Lloyd is no exception. In a football game he looks twice as big and acts it too.

Besides being captain of the specialty team, Mumphord took over Tim Foley's position when Foley was injured during the latter part of the season.

But you won't find him telling you that he is as modest as they come.

As he and Eddie Alford (who tried to fool me into thinking he was Franco Harris) walked through the plaza; the first people they met were some women who were having a bake sale.

He said hi and the women said hi and then just like that the Alford few steps I decided Mumphord was also basically on the shiv side so I decided to introduce him to them.

"Oh, my husband thinks the Miami Dolphins are the greatest thing on earth," exclaimed one woman.

"So does mine," added several others. And then they wanted to see the Super Bowl ring. Funny thing about us No Way.

You won't ever catch me saying newspapers' publishers are out of shape. Just the other day Glenn and I decided to race each other all the way around the block, which is exactly a quarter of a mile, and he beat me by a block.

I was so tired after running half way around I cheated a little and walked part way. When I finally staggered into the office he had already rested and was talking about doing it again. I could only shake my head numbly.

No Way.

Glades Central has the honor of sending four Raider wrestlers to compete in the state tournament in Fort Lauderdale.

Clark Lloyd (who has only lost one match, that being in last week's District V tournament); "Rat" Collins, "Noddie" Brown and Anthony Brown are going to compete.

From what I hear, Stranahan High School puts out some really tough wrestlers so I wish the best of luck to them.

Food Rules Changed

Glades area food stamp users last week were invited to comment on proposed new regulations for the food stamp program.

The regulations implement amendments to the Food Stamp Act contained in the Agriculture and Consumer Protection Act of 1973 (Public Law 93-86).

The proposed regulations also include revisions resulting from the Supreme Court decision that the "tax dependency" and "relatedness" provisions are unconstitutional, and make other necessary technical changes in the program.

Highlights of the proposals announced last week were:

- Broadened eligibility categories to include the elderly in federal sponsored housing, and drug addicts and alcoholics in private nonprofit residential treatment facilities.

- Provisions to allow elderly to use food coupons to purchase meals in specified communal dining situations.

- Revised rules that states give welfare recipients the option to have the costs of their coupons deducted from their grant and the coupons mailed to the state.

- Provisions to allow recipients to use coupons to buy breakable equipment to apply for food stamps under emergency eligibility standards.

- Requirement that income include the actual value of house rents received in kind from employers but not in excess of $25 per month.

- Provisions to allow households living in remote areas of Alaska to use food coupons to purchase certain hunting and fishing equipment for procuring game.

•Requirement that recipients be citizens of the United States or otherwise permanent residents.

•Provisions to ban participation by strikers after a court has determined the strike illegal.

•Reduction from 15 to 10 days in the advance notice period given households whose benefits are being reduced or terminated.

•Limitation of circumstances in which advance notice is required to terminate or reduce benefits.

•In an economic dispute, states would be prohibited from using personnel or facilities from either side of the dispute to certify households for the food stamp program.

•Requirement that after 30 days from the date of registration for employment all able-bodied food stamp recipients accept jobs outside their major field of experience.

•Public comments are invited on the proposed regulations which are scheduled for publication in the Federal Register on Jan. 28. Written comments may be mailed or delivered to James H. Koehler, Office of Nutrition Review, Food and Nutrition Service, U.S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D.C. 20250, so as to be received not later than Feb. 27. Comments received will be open to public inspection.

•Other provisions of Public Law 93-86 allowing food coupons to purchase imported foods and seeds and plants for home gardens and mandating a nationwide food stamp program Jan. 30, 1974, were announced Aug. 1, and became effective Aug. 21.

The law also required that coupon allotments adjusted Jan. 1, 1974 to reflect food stamp losses as of Aug. 30 of this year. This announcement of those adjustments was published in the Federal Register on Nov. 1, 1973.

THE REV. DON GENTES GETS IN A FEW MORE LICKS AT THE ...Christian Church, tearing off old siding to make room for new in rebuilding job.

A House For God

Work on the Christian Church in Belle Glade, transforming from a duplex residence to a church and pastor's home, is nearing completion according to the Rev. Don Gentes.

Rev. Gentes said he expects the remodeling to be completed in approximately two more months. He and other members of the congregation have already replaced the old siding, installed new windows, installed paneling on the interior walls and arranged partitions to better suit the building's use as a church.

"We also had some help from four men from a church in Lake Port," Rev. Gentes said. "They came over and helped us put in new siding and install new windows."

He said work still left to be completed includes replacing the siding on the front exterior wall of the church, replacing the front porch and some interior remodeling.

"We've already spent about $2,200 for materials alone," Rev. Gentes said.

"We started out in a real hurry," he explained, "to get moved in before Christmas but after we got moved in, we haven't been under so much pressure."

The church, located at 348 E. Canal St. South, is the former home of Wallace Lutz. Before

HOW MUCH FOR THE HOMEOWNER?

It is safe to assume that insurance is paying dimes for dollars. But a legitimate question for the owner of a homeowners policy is, "How many dollars will I receive for a casualty loss?"

Coverage provided in nearly all homeowners policies carries a deductible provision. This means that the person holding the policy pays the first $50 or $100 or more in damage or losses, and the insurance company pays the remainder.

It is important to know that in order to be assured of full payment for any partial damage to your home, you must have it insured for at least 80 percent of its full market value. For example, if your $30,000 home is insured for $24,000 or more, and a fire does $2,000 damage to your kitchen, you will receive the entire $2,000 minus the deductible. If, on the other hand, your home is insured for less than $24,000, you will receive only a percentage of the $2,000, depending on how much the kitchen had depreciated in value prior to the fire.

The Power Of God

Has anyone measured the water
Contained in the oceans and seas?

Has anyone found the machinery
That creates the wind and the breeze?

Has anyone weighed the mountains
Or measured the rocks piled high?

Has anyone found the magnets
That hold the stars in the sky?

Has anyone found the lantern
Behind the lightning's flash?

Or found the huge bass drummer
That causes the thunder's crash?

Has anyone ever counted
Grains of sand upon the shore?

Or found the molds for the seashells
Washed in with the tide's loud roar?

Has anyone made the tiny seeds
Burst open and grow in the soil?

I wonder if we can truly know
How great and powerful is God!

Supplemental Income

An Answer For Some

Income limited? Can't make ends meet anymore? Maybe SSII is the answer. And what is SSII? SSII is Supplemental Security Income. This is a new Federal program that began this year.

This new program of monthly payments takes the place of cash payments that have been made by public assistance offices to the aged, blind and disabled.

It is for people who have very little money coming in and who don't have much in assets—things they own such as savings, bonds or property other than a home.

The aim o' the program is that everyone who is 65 or older, blind or disabled will have a basic cash income of $140 a month for a single person and $210 for a couple.

If the person has no other income he will receive this amount in the supplemental payment. If he has other income it will be deducted from the basic amount and will receive a supplemental check in a smaller amount.

The first $20 of other monthly income generally won't affect the payment.

For example a single person's only income is $90 a month social security benefit. The first $20 of this is not counted, which leaves $70 countable income.

The person would then receive $70 a month Supplemental Security Income payment.

Income isn't the only thing to be considered in determining if a person can receive these payments. Things a person owns must be counted also.

A home generally isn't counted. Household goods and a car of moderate value usually do not count. However, property other than a home, savings value usually do not count. However, property other than a home, savings value usually do not count.

Our precious heritage embodied in the flag of the United States, is an ally today just as it was written for the ages in the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution. It stands for all the world to see and for all Americans to cherish. And in the tradition of Washington, and of the men who followed him, a right, a wrong, and a battle, we should always do our best to protect the great democracy the world has ever known.

Our flag is a symbol, not a sentiment, but of history, the history of men and women willing to live and die for it. Surely this willingness is as still, because daily we experience more of the meanings that are ours—ours because we are Americans.
